

The Italian Ambassador

Prot. 520
- 3 MAR 2015

Caro Dottor Lo Faro,

I find of great interest the initiative entitled "PrimiDieci" that you wish to replicate in the United Kingdom following the very successful US edition.

To reward Italians who have distinguished themselves in the various fields of knowledge and entrepreneurship is a commendable undertaking which I find particularly appropriate in the light of the efforts being made to re-launch Italy's economy at the moment. The Embassy already dedicates a considerable amount of time to various initiatives aimed at rewarding distinguished Italians in the UK but none has the profile of "PrimiDieci".

In strongly encouraging you to continue with the difficult task of securing the necessary financial and human resources required, I can confirm that the Italian Embassy could supervise the selection procedure of the personalities to be chosen at the "Top Ten" in the United Kingdom.
